Item #5

Dear NANDC Policy Committee and Jean Frost,

On behalf of the neighborhood, the University Park Action Coalition is writing to address its concern surrounding Burgerim Hoover (2595 Hoover St) acquiring a liquor license. We appreciate you bringing to light the organization's stance on the issue at the SLA Planning meeting this afternoon. Community members find that there is already an influx of businesses selling liquor, with places like Bacaro L.A. and California Vegan around the corner.

Additionally, many are worried as the Ward Villas For Seniors is directly across the street only 161 meters (.1 of a mile) away. Roughly twenty community members at our meeting on Thursday, May 16th are concerned that this will be a nuisance to senior center residents, as well as, to Burgerim Hoover's neighbors.

Community members would like to halt the fast-food restaurant's ability to gain a liquor license. If this is not possible, they would like to be ensured that restrictions or protocols will be in place. Avoiding underage drinking, excessive drinking, and public disturbances in the community are of primary concern.

Again, please consider the impacts on the community before proceeding with the approval of this liquor license. If you have any questions, comments, or concerns feel free to contact us at losangeles.upac@gmail.com or at +1 (213) 700-6782.

Respectfully,

The University Park Action Coalition Board | Aurora Becerra and Sofia Bosch
