Good Morning,

My decade long involvement in efforts to rehabilitate The Oakridge Estate (HCM #484) has increased my awareness of the importance and urgency of preserving our treasured cultural landmarks within the City of Los Angeles.

As a member of the Art Deco Society of Los Angeles, I support the organization's nomination of the 1930 Art Deco E. Clem Wilson building (217-5231 West Wilshire Boulevard, and 672-682 South La Brea Avenue) for Historic Cultural Monument designation. The population of historic resources in the Miracle Mile area is dangerously low. This is one of the three towers that defined the district prior to World War II. Designed and constructed by the acclaimed Master design-build firm of Meyer & Holler, it is a wonderful example of Art Deco architecture with its use of setbacks.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Deborah Donnelly
