Mr. Como,

I am still awaiting a response to my email.

Why is the City Planning Department opening review and comment periods on large scale developments while the population is under a Stay-at-Home order? We can't access the DEIR at the library, or any documents at the Planning Department, or documents at City Hall.

So why is the public being barred access to public documents while the developer is allowed to proceed forward on large scale projects?

I am asking that any review periods be suspended while the Stay-at-Home order is in place and for 30 days afterwards. We have to deal with paying rent, being sick, and the loss of loved ones. Does the Planning Department really think this is acceptable to prevent us from looking at documents while asking for input? How is this not being done as a way of showing favoritism to developers over the community?

Please withdraw all review and comment requests on all projects until after the order is lifted.

Mr. Como,

I am in receipt of this draft EIR notification. However, I am unsure why public notice for a draft EIR is being sent out when we are still under a Stay at Home order due to COVID-19. We can't access the library to review the file. As such, I am asking that with limited public resources, this notice and it's review period be suspended until the lifting of the order. It is incomprehensible that anyone who is having to deal with loss of jobs, loss of family members, or battling this sickness would be expected to have an ability to review this information.

So I am respectfully asking that this, and all project EIR's reviews, be withdrawn until 30 days after the order is lifted.
