Thank you for providing this report, Mindy.

I vehemently oppose this project in its entirety. Hollywood is already overdeveloped, and lacking the social infrastructure for residents in particular to live safely and conveniently in this area. This project not only does not add necessities to Hollywood residents, but it actually creates further barriers to quality of life.

We don't need another hotel. In light of the the new world that COVID-19 is ushering in, travel will change. We already have sufficient, if not too many, hotel rooms. This does not in any meaningful way assist our homeless crisis but providing legitimately affordable units for an appreciated amount of people.

Social space will be entirely different in light of C-19. This proposal creates space that will be dangerous and then likely unused.

It's on a fault line. It's unconscionably irresponsible to build here.

In general, it will destroy the impact of one of Hollywood's few remaining cultural touchstones: the Capitol Records building. Visual blight - we've had enough.

This project takes and doesn't give to our community. I can't hate it more.
