Hi Veronica,

Thank you for your email. As with the others, your comments have been received and will be included in the administrative record for the Hollywood Center Project EIR.

Please be advised that the City has an established naming convention for email correspondence received on this Project, and will continue to use it as such. The number that follows the date of the emails indicates the time the email was sent.

Let me know if you have any further questions.

Dear Ms. Nguyen:

The Silverstein Law Firm's letter of April 27, 2020 is incorrectly labeled in the Public Comments section of the running Administrative Record for the subject-referenced matter. Please change it so that it is consistent with the earlier sent letters from this firm labeled "R. Silverstein..." Please note that any letter sent from this email address ("veronica@robertsilversteinlaw.com") should be noted and considered sent by The Silverstein Law Firm.

Please also advise the significance of the number that follows the date of the letters submitted for this matter.

Thank you.
