Hi Mindy,

Please let me know where this project stands now. I had planned to attend a meeting that was cancelled at the last minute.

When is the next opportunity for public comment -- and where does this project stand now.

Also, can you please tell me WHO the land use planning commissioners and city council members are who currently support this proposal? I would also like contact information for each one.

Thank you very much for your help.

Stay safe and well!

Dr. Margaret Martin

Hollywood resident and business owner who lives and owns residential income property that is located four blocks from the proposed development.
