Hello Mindy,

I am concerned about such development in Hollywood (image attached) as there has already been SO MUCH BUILDING already !! We the local residents can already feel the impact as traffic has become MUCH WORSE. It feels like Hollywood has become OVERPOPULATED as is!! And now these towering building are being considered??? Honestly I think that the current new buildings are appropriate in height (under 20 stories I believe) for Hollywood's quaintness and historical charm.

Let the developers go DOWNTOWN if they really want to go that high. It would be ridiculous and impractical to "squeeze" into Hollywood's landscape.

Therefore me and my family and neighbors too, are AGAINST THIS NEW DEVELOPMENT IDEA 100%.
