Subject: Hollywood Center comments

Hello Ms Nguyen,

I want to put my 2 cents in for this project. As a 35 year resident of Hollywood I've seen dramatic proposals come and go, and am involved with one myself aimed to memorialize California's contribution to world culture as the center of the creative universe.

I've followed this from the beginning and compliment the developers for their patience and fortitude while facing the classic NIMBY challenges always present.

Much progress has been made in the last 25 years in Hollywood in spite of what I think is a moribund Chamber of Commerce. But we need much, much more! This is only one of what should be 50 similar sized developments!
