Hello,

I have lived at Menorah Housing in Long Beach for approximately 8 years, and have found the staff friendly and helpful and the apartment building well run. It was a God send to me to find this housing as I am a low-income senior and there are few options out there that are affordable with caring people running it. The maintenance and support staff are also excellent.

I would definitely recommend Menorah Senior Housing as a good place for seniors to live.

Best,

Lynn Rosenberg
