Hi Laura,

We hadn't heard that direction, but just confirmed that we don't need that info. I apologize for the confusion. If you've already made the changes, we can still use it, if not, not need to add the signature lines.

Hi Bradley,

Other planners have asked us to remove that information from the Initial Study. Apparently a new template is coming out soon. We had already printed the Initial Study given the publication is tomorrow. I'll see what I can do about the hard copies but we can certainly fix the electronic versions.

Thank you

Thanks, Laura.

A couple edits

1. IS page 5 is missing the name, date, signature title lines
2. IS page 70, footnotes 60 and 61 are missing the "2" from "2045"
3. Appendix IS-3 is has the incorrect cover page.

Hi Bradley,

All Initial Study files to post on the web are now uploaded. These same files can be used to post to OPR/SCH website but you will have to include the final signed NOC.

Here is the link to the files:
