

City Planning Commission

Equity Day 2021

Join us for a Community Listening Session.

On January 21, the Los Angeles City Planning Commission (CPC) will host a listening session to provide community members the opportunity to share their experiences about planning and development in their neighborhoods, and to offer equity-focused strategies that can ensure just outcomes for all Angelenos. This event is a public activity of CPC's newly formed Equity Subcommittee.

In the course of this day, we hope to:

- Understand how structural racism has been built into our existing policies
- Amplify the voices of people most impacted by racist policies
- Inform CPC's future anti-racist and equity framework to guide decision making on projects and policy

JANUARY 21, 2021

9 AM - 2 PM

For more information about the event, please visit: <https://planning4la.org/cpc-equity-day-2021> .If you are unable to attend, please share your thoughts using this form <https://planning4la.org/cpc-equity-day-2021-comments>. We hope you can join us!

This event will include interpretation in the following languages: Spanish, Tagalog, Korean, Armenian, and Mandarin. Upon request, CPC can facilitate having sign language interpreters and interpretation between English and other languages not listed available to the public. All requests must be made at least three working days or 72 hours in advance of the event or meeting date. To request accommodations or interpretation services, or for other questions, please contact cpc@lacity.org.